Talented driver secures supercars drive at Australia's Great Race

He might be only 18 but Mount Gambier's Kai Allen is set to write another chapter in his motor racing career, securing a wildcard entry into this year's Repco Bathurst 1000.

Allen will be teaming with Swiss driver Simona De Silvestro in the wildcard Ford Mustang entry for the Shell V-Power Racing Team, making them one of three DJR Mustangs in the field at the Bathurst 1000, with De Silvestro/Allen in Car #98 alongside Will Davison/Alex Davison in Car #17 and Anton De Pasquale/Tony D'Alberto in Car #11.
