

The Limestone Coast Support Homeless People Luncheon was held at The Barn on Friday after a COVID-induced hiatus, raising over $125,000 for ac.care to help those in need.

The guest speakers on the day were Premier Peter Malinauskas, ac.care chief executive officer Shane Maddocks, marketing and communications manager Jason Wallace and homelessness and community services manager Trish Spark highlighting the significance of the event.

Almost 500 people attended the luncheon, which included a raffle, an auction conducted by Andrew Whan, a lucky-key draw and a powerful Welcome to Country delivered by Tim Brennan.

- 1: Jeff Pope (front left), Grant District Mayor Kylie Boston, Megan Dukalskis, Aaron Price, Colin Byles (back left), Wattle Range Mayor Des Noll and Darryl Whicker supported the cause.
- 2: Kirby Crawford, Sharon Disher and Terri Patching from the Barry Maney Group were out and about for the Limestone Coast Support Homeless People Luncheon.
- 3: Alison Boomsma, Chris Walters, and Trish Van Dyk enjoyed the event.
- 4: OneFortyOne employees Melissa Ryan, Jo Faton, John Cannon, Janeth Mackenzie and Charlene Riley enjoyed the event.
- 5: The staff at Green Triangle Electronics were all smiles for the major fundraiser's long awaited return.

- 6: Megan Jenner and Shawn Stockwell were all smiles for the luncheon.
- 7: The Bendigo Bank Mount Gambier and District Community Bank team raised money for ac.care at the Limestone Coast Support Homeless People Luncheon.

- 8: Louise and Ian Wheller and Amanda Neale socialised at the Limestone Coast Support Homeless People Luncheon.
- 9: Jill Scott, Rose Allen, Colleen James and Loraine Baron were delighted for the luncheon's return.
- 10: Kate Hill and Kathrine Baldock raised money for the less vulnerable in the community.

- 11: Jen Gray and Tara Brook attended the Limestone Coast Support Homeless People Luncheon.
- 12: The City of Mount Gambier staff enjoyed listening to the guest speakers.
- 13: The Sinclair Wilson staff attended the community fundraiser.
- 14: Ange Koch and Irma and Darryl Prunnell from I&D Contracting spent their Friday supporting ac.care.
- 15: The Triple M and SAFM employees supported the worthy cause.
- 16: Robyn Hill, Taylor O'Brien and Paula Guthrie socialised at the event.

Pics: Brandi Miller and Shaun Richards

